

FaithWeaver Friends™ Director

What an opportunity to serve others and impact kids' lives for God! You'll organize and direct FaithWeaver Friends, providing vision, offering affirmation, and serving the leaders who work with children.

To enjoy your role and be wildly successful as a Friends director, it helps if you

- communicate clearly and easily with people,
- enjoy managing teams of people,
- feel comfortable recruiting people to serve in areas of their giftedness,
- are a good listener,
- enjoy working with children and those who serve them,
- are flexible and fun,
- rely on God for guidance and perspective, and
- model God's love in everything you say and do.

Responsibilities

As director, you'll be responsible for

- leading (or arranging for someone to lead) training for leaders,
- planning and managing the ongoing calendar,
- assuring the high quality of meetings,
- serving as a liaison with your host church or facility manager,
- enthusiastically supporting the program and its staff,
- coaching and encouraging leaders,
- monitoring the spiritual growth of those in the program, and
- praying for those whose lives are touched by FaithWeaver Friends.

Related Interests

You'll enjoy directing Friends if you enjoy any of the following activities:

- helping others find meaningful service opportunities,
- managing people, or
- organizing ministries and projects.

Permission to photocopy this job description from FaithWeaver Friends™ Director Manual granted for local church use. Copyright © FaithWeaver®, www.fwfriends.com