

Games Leader

Kids love to play, and you'll encourage lasting friendships to form in Circles of Friends as your enthusiasm prompts kids to join you in noncompetitive, relationship-building games.

To enjoy your role and be wildly successful as a Games leader, it helps if you

- love God,
- enjoy playing games,
- like activity and are energetic,
- maintain a positive attitude,
- value the gift of play—whether you win or lose,
- value cooperation and teamwork,
- can organize and motivate children, and
- model God's love in everything you say and do.

Responsibilities

As a Games leader, you'll be responsible for

- attending scheduled leader training,
- collecting necessary supplies,
- leading kids in noncompetitive games,
- reinforcing the weekly Bible Point as you lead,
- cleaning up the game area after games are played,
- assisting the Friends director as needed, and
- praying for the children and volunteers in Friends.

Related Interests

You'll enjoy leading the Games Discovery Center if you enjoy any of the following activities:

- coaching or leading children in fun activities,
- creating games,
- teaching through athletics, or
- organizing and supervising teams of people.
